Re:MONSTER

リ・モンスター　第8話

原作：金斬児狐／漫画：小早川ハルヨシ

So assigned her to maintaining our weapons.
The warm looking girl turned out to hold the "appraiser" and "smith" jobs.
Asking them to start making clothes for goblins would be a bit un-reasonable, so they'll instead be cooking for everyone.
The girl who seem to be sisters both held the "cook" and "tailor" jobs.
Oh, right,
The smart and cool beauty held the "alchemist" job, so I had her make potions for us.
I won't be able to guarantee your safety anymore.
I'll just tell you now that if you mix poison into the food, but honestly, she's pretty useless, so she'll be training with us later on.

Oh, and the red short hair is a novice "warrior",
Uh, I didn't say that to scare you...
Our ranking up system works only on non-human beings,
humans instead have a diverse "jobs" system.
Now then,
about those "jobs" ...
GOBLIN
HOBGOBLIN
SELECT YOUR JOB
MORE STRENGTH
NEW ARTS
NEW SKILL
MAGIC WARRIOR
LIGHT SWORD
ALCHEMIST
WIZARD
SMITH
CRAFTSMAN
DRUID
Anyone can level up their "job" by simply investing time into it, and if you have the aptitude, you can even rank it up into a better one.
To make up for the difference in base power compared to monsters, jobs provide benefits and compensation to allow standing up to powerful foes.

ABOUT "RANK UP" @HUMAN

People called 'heroes' are also products of this "jobs" system, in fact, there are seriously "hero" jobs ...
After breakfast, we would normally train,
but today was a little different.
We spent the morning gathering everything inside the cave,
and prepared to move.
With the arrival of the expeditionary group, this cave became pretty cramped.
Well, because of how many new goblins have survived, there's no real choice here.

Our destination is the orcs' mine,
The size is just fine, and it's reinforced, so it won't collapse.
Also, I want some more spirit stones.
About an hour later, we left the cave along with the 5 human girls.
Fare-well, my birth-place.
After an hour of walking through the forest ...
I sent goblin Kichi and 10 goblins ahead as the vanguard, to take out any orcs that are still around there.
Goblin Rou ~~!

Good job, so there were still some orcs here.
Yeah, but there were more of us.
Do you want the hearts?
Yeah, thanks.
Share the rest with the rest of the vanguard.
After that began the maintenance and modification of the mine, though that was merely a matter of finding places to store the weapons and food,
and building a restroom and bedrooms.

A smithy, a kitchen, a workshop,
and their bedroom.
Yeah ...
What power ...
I left the smaller details for goblin Grandpa and the others to deal with,
and dealt with the area the human girls would reside in.

A little digging and the walls reveal fire and water stones, so drinking water and lighting are readily available.
The work was pretty easy because of "earth control".

There's plenty more where this came from!
Oh, that looks good.
Great work everyone, the food is ready now.
We spent the rest of the day cleaning up and chatting.
Really ?
This place is amazing!
With all these spirit stone, I won't have any problems making things.

【Day 29】
To start off, I had them watch the others practice.
The hell's this ?
H-Hey ...
We finally began training the older goblins as well.
from now on after all.
The lot of you will be joining them
No need to worry about it, guys.
Ah, goblin Rou.

And then came the ever enjoyable real deal.
As a bonus I acted like a drill sergeant from hell.
What, are you bastards already tired ?!
Did you cultivate nothing but your own age all this time ?!
Anyone who falls behind will have to do push-ups!
If you don't want to, you better start running, ladies!
You damned brat!
Don't get all cocky just 'cause y-Ergh !
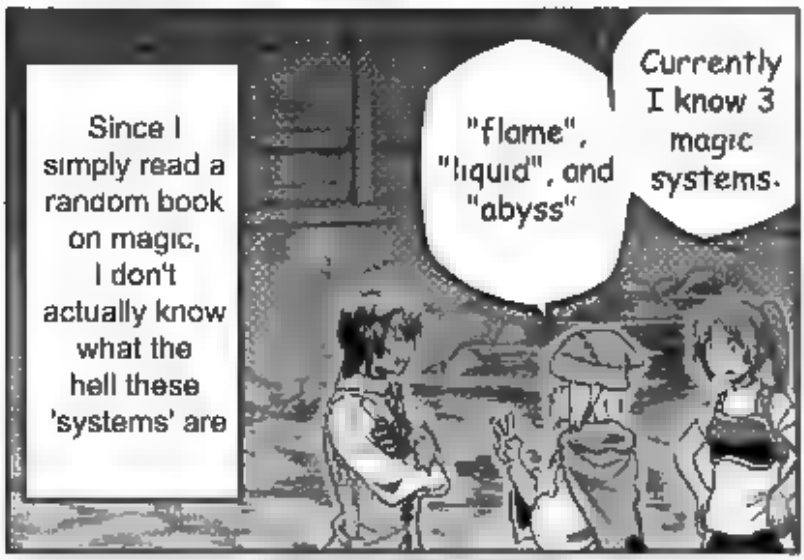
Rebellious behavior was fixed with force.

Something about that scene felt familiar ...
At the end, everyone had to spar with me.
The following few hours were a repeating cycle of screams and treatment.
Goblin Rou is really tough when he's like that.
I expected this too...
Ah, I knew it...
We didn't hunt that day, and later I decided to implement more rules.
Another 10 laps!
They certainly had the strength, since they recovered so fast.
I had no choice but to restart the training session. (monotone)

【Day 30】
There was a heavy downpour today, so we decided to hold another event to decide on the hierarchy for our community
GOBLIN'S COMMUNITY CUP 2ND
1ST
2ND
3RD
the event this time was split into 2 divisions
But because of the difference in power between goblins and hobgoblins,
The outcome was to be expected
The older hobgoblins scored similarly in one-on-one combat.
If magic was allowed, I bet you'd have gotten higher in the ranks
I don't care about that,
good luck, Sato.

I'm gonna teach the others to read
I'm gonna practice mining!
I'm gonna keep training
Afterwards, everyone went to do their own thing
See you later.



Since I simply read a random book on magic, I don't actually know what the hell these 'systems' are "flame", "liquid", and "abyss"
Currently I know 3 magic systems.

I was curious about her magic

I went to talk to hobgoblin Sei

I also ended up assisting them
Mind cooking that some t me?
I guess
You know some odd dishes
Sure.
I then went over to check on the human girls and see if they need anything
Since they're all so cute, it was a feast for the eyes

【Day 31】
Hey, goblin Kichi.
Last night I made some armor out of a black wolf pelt.
I also took some of the things we obtained when we subjugated the orcs.
I'm also getting used to the orc leader's halberd.
After morning training, goblin Kichi and I decided to spar.
Since the down-pour is continuing, we're still staying inside.
What's with outfit?
Don't about it.

In con-clusion :
goblin Kichi has gotten pretty strong.
Haha !
Well done, goblin Kichi!

I specialize in using abilities to confuse my enemies and strike them from behind, so I have trouble with opponents like goblin Kichi who rely on their own strength.
He's also gotten better at wielding that axe, he's learned from experience how to best swing it.
And now that it's combined with a fire stone, that crescent axe is quite
Even with 'flame tolerance', hot stuff is still hot.
I'm not done yet!
Come at me, goblin Rou!

And so, a good part of the day was spent on that mock battle.
Just as I'd want it!

I want a taste of `em ...
There's a whole 5 of them beauties, not using them is just weird What're you getting scared for?
If we get caught, we'll be in deep shit...
Are we doin` it tonight?
Come on, it's not like them girl goblins can satisfy us now.
There's no reason we have to listen to that little brat, right?
